LIFE INSURANCE.

ÆTNA

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

HON. E. A. BULKELEY, President,
AUSTIN DUNHAM, Vice "
T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.
H. W. ST JOHN, Actuary.

SUMMARY OF BUSINESS FOR 1867

Total Assets, over	$10,000,000
Polices Insured in '67,	15,251
Am'nt Insured, nearly	$45,000,000
Policies Average "	3,000
Receipts for 1867,	5,129,447
Surplus for Dividends,	2,000,000

Dividend Fifty per cent.

Receipts for Interest Nearly Paid Its Losses.

It has $130 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

Its premium receipts at the present time are nearly HALF A MILLION DOLLARS per month and are rapidly increasing.

The growth of the Ætna has never been equaled by any other Company whatsoever, in Europe or America.

Particular attention is called to the fact that while its business is increasing unprecedentedly, its ratio of expenses is comparatively small.

ECONOMY of management, CARE in the selection of risks, promptness in the payment of death claims, and security in the investment of its immense Trust Funds, are rigidly adhered to, and have ever characterized this Company.

The Ætna insures all the favorite kinds of Polices at the most favorable rates.

The Ætna issued last year more Endowment Insurances than any other Company.

The Ætna's ratio of expenses, or cost of new business is less than any other Company whatsoever, and less than two-thirds of the average.

The Ætna is as liberal in permits to travel, in all parts of the world, as a sound discretion will warrant, and is much more liberal than any other prominent Company.

ANNUAL INCOME over $6,000,000.

The only Company that has the Low Partidipating Non-forfeitable Term Insurance with privilege of renewal. Ex. of rate at age 30 $14 67, which is nearly 40 per cent. lower than any other leading Company. Also Non-forfeiting cash rates with dividends on contribution plan and payable at the end of the first year.

Description of Policies.

First—Whole Life Policies,

Second—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term, or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the rates published herewith, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue,

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect; either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made the dividends will be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the insured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON-FORFEITURE RULES.

No whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payment as stipulated therein, but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends, then accumulated, will purchase, taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

LIFE INSURANCE.

The Most Vigorous and the Most Liberal Insurance Company in the Country.

BROOKLYN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

141 Broadway, N. Y.

ASSETS OVER

$1,000,000!

CHRISTIAN W. BOUCK, ... President.
ABRAM D. POLHEMUS, ... Vice President.
WILLIAM M. LOAK, ... Secretary.
D. P. FACKLER, ... Consulting Actuary.
DANIEL AYRES, M. D., LL.D., Med. Examiner.

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guarantees a definite surrender-value to every Policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued. should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the MOST LIBERAL Life Insurance Company in the United States, are:

1st. TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS OF TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permits.

2d. A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d. All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates as low as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTRIBUTION PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. P. Fackler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The success which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 10, 1869.

SANCHO PANZA AND THE HANDS.

Sancho said: "I can say for myself that, since I have been a Knight Errant, I am become liberal, civil, valiant, well bred, generous, courteous, daring, affable, patient and honest." Making legislators of the hands has had much the effect upon them that knight errantry had upon Sancho.

Who will question the liberality of the hands, after they have appropriated 19,000,000 for Railroads, and seven dollars per day for themselves.

Who will question their valor, after the Speaker of the House fights the Attorney General in the grog shop, and the Engrossing Clerk has three fair fights with the Doorkeeper.

Who will doubt their honesty, after locating the Penitentiary.

Their civility, good-breeding and courtesy, shall be shown by what they say of themselves.

Senator Wynn said, on the floor of the Senate, "Senators we are called a nest of buzzards." Senator Welker, of Guilford, said there was one who should be put out of the Capitol and that was one Destitute. He is, generally, believed to have had the Attorney General in his mind's eye when he spoke. Galloway, the colored Senator, said, when Pilgrim Ashley, Auditor Adams and the Supreme Court were all engaged in unbecoming, not to say disgraceful, contests for rooms in the Capitol, that Coleman, the Attorney General, might give up his room, for he was seldom in it.

Wednesday night, the 3rd of March, was a memorable night in the legislative history of North Carolina. Wyman, the great magician, was exhibiting in the city and the hands were totally demoralized. Upon a call of the House only 46 members answered. The Doorkeeper was ordered to close the doors and arrest all absentees.

Mr. Dixon moved to adjourn.

Mr. Pou hoped the motion would not prevail as Wyman would exhibit for several nights in this city.

Here the Doorkeeper appears at the bar of the House with eight white hands and two negroes that he had arrested. After some debate, says the Reporter, the prisoners were discharged.

The Doorkeeper was directed to proceed to the gallery and bring in Mr. Stevens, he reported Mr. S. had leave of absence. This Mr. S. is Littlefield's friend to whom he lent 1200 dollars after a very short acquaintance.

Mr. Nicholson appeared upon the floor and was brought to the bar. Mr. Ingram, (Radical,) said "he hoped that gentlemen would remember they occupied seats once filled by Gaston and Stanly, and they should remember they are representatives in the Legislature of North Carolina, and if they would or could not deport themselves with dignity, they should at least behave themselves with decency."

This was well said for Ingram. The Chair said unless better order was preserved he would appoint members to assist the doorkeeper in maintaining it."

W. Y. Hayes, colored, and G. W. Price, colored, were brought before the desk of the Speaker.

Mr. Sinclair (Radical Preacher) "took the floor, and said he was heartily ashamed of such proceedings as was every one who had the least respect for the dignity of the State." The Chair interrupted him by saying, two members were now before the bar of the House.

Mr. Sinclair "to put a stop to the disgraceful farcical scene, I move the House adjourn."

The motion was withdrawn at the request of Mr. Bowman who moved to discharge the members under arrest!

Mr. Sinclair "resumed expressing his astonishment and mortification at such proceedings on part of the House."

"The yeas and nays being called the noise and confusion was such that the Speaker pro tem (Mr. French, carpet bagger) appointed the following gentlemen to aid the Doorkeeper in maintaining order: Messrs. Kinney, Nicholson, Hodgin, Ashworth, Hinnant, and Shaver." Messrs. Moring, Gatling, Ellington and Hilliard were brought by the Doorkeeper to the bar of the House.

Mr. Argo said, "If the Doorkeeper would go to Tucker Hall, he would find a good many members attending the exhibition,—several who had been brought from there, and just released from arrest, had now gone back."

The Doorkeeper reported that he had arrested several members at the exhibition, and had seen them enter the door of the House, and now they were nowhere to be found. It was no fault of his.

Mr. Argo said the Doorkeeper should lock the door to keep those here from leaving.

Mr. Malone said, "there were some members who desired to do their duty; there were others who did nothing but lounge about bar rooms, went to calico balls, and escorted the girls generally. The Legislature was characterized all over the State as the most disgraceful body ever assembled in the Capitol; he insisted that the odium attaching itself to this body properly belonged to the members he alluded to, because of the inattention and carelessness he wished the people to know and hear of these disgraceful proceedings.

B. W. Morris, colored, said, "they had been acting like school boys, and had better not come here at all."

Mr. Ingram said, "as a compromise between those who wanted night sessions, and those who did not, he would move to except Thursday, Friday, and Saturday night. It was easy to see who was heaping all this odium upon this body." Good for Ingram, again. His motion was carried.

So the hands, holding night sessions, refused to do so for three nights, because Wyman, the juggler, would exhibit those three nights. This is the account the hands give of themselves.

We forbear to add a word, lest the Governor, through John Neathery's and General Littlefield's paper, shall say we are actuated by malice.

SIR JOHN FRANKLIN.

When this subject of her Britannic Majesty, was thought to be lost or suffering from cold in the frozen zones, the civilized world manifested great concern for his misfortunes, and fate. Our Government put forth its sympathy and its strong arm to help.

Fifteen of Governor Holden's subjects are lost; after being murdered they are drowned in a mill pond, by rebels. Judge Tourgee is cognizant of the whole matter. He has personal acquaintance with the "respectable Quaker" who saw the dead bodies as they came from their watery graves. Will the Governor make no inquiry? Shall there be no investigation? Shall such crime go unpunished? Where is the pond and who committed fifteen foul murders?

Now that we have a new administration, should not our government request of her Britannic Majesty, that as soon as Dr. Livingston shall have completed his explorations of the source of the Nile and other interesting problems to Africa, he be sent to this country to search out that mill pond from which Tourgees' Quaker saw the bodies of fifteen negroes drawn out, who had been murdered by their white neighbors? We have inquired of white and black, and no living man gives us any information of the mill pond, or the informing Quaker.

If Queen Victoria is so ungracious and ungrateful as not in return to look for our lost and unfortunate, then we say, let Governor Holden call on the Legislature to fit out an exploring expedition, to be conducted by Professor Brewer and General Laflin, to find this mill pond and the dead bodies. Judge Tourgee can act as guide. Humanity and science call for the expedition and investigation.

GRANT'S CABINET.

Great disappointment is manifest among the politicians at the character of the Cabinet appointed by the President. Grant is evidently acting for himself. He counsels with none; he acts like one use to command, and disappoints all. He is "unentrammelled" he says, and there is no denying that he has thus acted so far. Dismay has been created throughout the ranks of the entire army of office seekers and toadies. What does Sumner and Company now think?

The Premier, Washburne, is an old party hack with strong Radical proclivities.—Borie, the Secretary of Navy, is a new man, a wealthy merchant of Philadelphia, but no doubt a Radical, but of what type we are uninformed. Everybody knows A. T. Stewart as the great prince merchant of New York. He is appointed to the Treasury Department, and is a man of great financial skill and capacity. He is a decided Radical, but hitherto not a politician. J. D. Cox, is from Ohio, was a general in the late war, is well known about Raleigh, and has been Governor of his State. He is a Republican, but opposed negro suffrage. A. J. Creswell, formerly United States Senator from Maryland, is a thorough-going Radical. He is thought to be the ablest man among the appointments. Before the war he was a Breckinridge Democrat. He was not thought of as one of the officers by the political soothsayers about Washington. R. B. Hoar is reputed to be able, of a mild form of Radicalism, and is a Judge of the Supreme Court of Massachusetts.

Such is the Cabinet, so far as completed. We are willing to await their action before we condemn or approve. We are truly glad that the venerable fossils and the rabid partisans have been left out, and that Grant has chosen men not certainly pledged to a policy illiberal, extreme and oppressive.

THE XVTH AMENDMENT.

As this Amendment to the Constitution is so frequently referred to in the discussions of the day, and, as it has just passed our own Legislature and both Houses of Congress, and will be ratified, no doubt, by the Legislatures of three-fourths of the States, we copy it for reference:

"Article XV. The right of the citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States, or by any State, on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

Section 2. The Congress shall have the power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

We believe this amendment will be adopted. It may prove a bitter draught to many Northern States but as they have made the South partake of its acrid ingredients, so the same chalice is now commended to their own lips, and Radicalism wills that it must be drunk. As misery loves company, we of the South can only rejoice that, the plank in the Chicago platform leaving the matter of negro suffrage to the Northern States has proved deceptive, and that by this act of the Congress, our brethren beyond the line will be forced to accept the same conditions that have been thus thrust unceremoniously upon us. The North had as well make up its mind at once and let "the friend and brother" do his voting side by side with the white man.

Ex President Johnson has informed the committee appointed by the City Council of Baltimore to invite him to visit that city, that he will make the visit next Thursday, the 11th instant.

A soldier of Great Barrington, Mass., by the name of Wilson, who received a Minie ball in the thigh, after five years of suffering, last week had it taken from his foot, whither it had journeyed, and is now likely to get well.

A call of the House was again made when a quorum answered.

Mr. A. J. Jones moved that every absentee, without a lawful excuse, be fined $10, and that the President be instructed to withhold that amount from his per diem, and, on that motion, called the yeas and nays, which resulted yeas 14, nays 13.

The vote being again taken, section 104 was not stricken out. Yeas 7, nays 23.

The remainder of the night session, extending to 10 o'clock, was occupied in the further consideration of the school bill.—The bill, as a whole, is objectionable to both parties—Mr. Welker, alone, Chairman of the Committee of Education, seeming to be its strongest friend.

Mr. A. J. Jones gave notice that on the third reading of the bill he would offer a substitute.

On motion, the Senate adjourned.

On motion, the House then adjourned.

SENATE.

TUESDAY, March 9, 1869.

No quorum being present, a call of the House was made, and absent Senators noted.

The Senator from Johnston, being absent at the opening, but entering 10 minutes after the President called the House to order, a motion was made that he be excused.

Mr. Cook gave as his excuse, that he was in the capitol, and at the Senate door, finding it locked, and could not enter the Chamber. He, however, did not ask to be excused, if he had violated a rule of the the Senate. He was, however, excused.

Mr. Welker moved to rescind the resolution, adopted last night, imposing a fine of $10 for unlawful absence.

Pending the consideration of this motion, Mr. Lassiter urged prompt attention to business, and a prompt attendance of members.

Mr. Love asked that the rules be suspended and his resolution defining what printing shall be done, be taken up. He was opposed to printing ratified acts—the expense was enormous, and the extravagance should be abated. There were over 70,000 pages of useless matter printed. The rules were not suspended.

Bill to prevent the sacrifice of State bonds, read and referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Bill to amend section 68 of Code of Civil Procedure, was taken up, read second time, and laid on the table.

Bill to repeal 279th section, chapter 2, Civil Procedure, read second time and tabled.

SPECIAL ORDER.

A bill to amend Code of Civil Procedure, in regard to fees, was taken up. Provides for the payment of fees, of public officers, their duties, who to pay costs in prosecutions, &c., &c.

Mr. Respass gave notice of a bill to construct a Railroad from Plymouth to Wilmington.

The subject of costs in prosecutions, elicited a running debate, which was engaged in by Messrs. Osborne, Graham, Davis, Welker, Respass, Barrow, Robbins, Sweet, Sheffner, Blythe, Brogden, and others, up to the hour of adjournment, with motions to amend sections and strike out others.

[In a bill of such vital importance to the public, without a knowledge of the bill, the reader will not understand the amendments to paragraphs, without having the whole paragraph before him, therefore, the reporter deems it advisable not to mystify the bill, by attempting to give the amendments.]

The said bonds so to be issued shall be disposed of upon the best terms practicable. Provided, That said bonds be of the denomination of one hundred, and five hundred, and one thousand dollars, respectively, and in such proportion as may be deemed advisable, and Provided further, That said loan shall not exceed fifty thousand dollars, and the bonds having twenty years to run.

SEC. 2 That the Board of Commissioners of the City of Raleigh are hereby authorized and empowered, and it shall be their duty, to provide for the payment as well of the principal money as also of the accruing interest of the bonds to be issued under the power granted in the preceding section, by annually laying proper taxes for these special purposes on all the persons and subjects of taxation on which said Board of Commissioners now are, or hereafter may be authorized to lay taxes, for any purpose whatever, and such taxes shall be collected and specially and exclusively applied to the satisfaction and discharging of the interest, and also of the principal money of such bonds, and so much thereof as may not be annually required to pay such interest and cannot be applied in discharge of the principal money of said bonds, shall be so invested as to secure the payment of such principal money upon maturity of said bonds. For the purpose of securing the due investments of the amount to be collected from year to year and applicable to the payment of the principal money of said bonds, the Board of Commissioners aforesaid shall appoint some suitable person to be styled "Commissioner of the Sinking Fund of the City of Raleigh," whose duty shall be, under such general rules and regulations as said Board of Commissioners shall from time to time prescribe, to make investments of so much of the taxes collected as aforesaid as shall be applicable as aforesaid to the payment of the principal money of said bonds, and to do and perform all such other services in connection with the debt of the City of Raleigh as said Board of Commissioners may prescribe, and such Commissioner shall give bond and receive such compensation for his services as said Board of Commissioners may determine.

SEC. 3. Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are of a truly marvellous character. Inveterate cases of scrofula, where the system seemed utterly given up to corruption, have yielded to this compound of antiscorbutic virtues. Disorders of a scrofulous type, and affections which are merely aggravated by the presence of scrofulous matter, have been radically cured in such numerous instances, in every settlement in the country, that the public do not need to be informed here that it is in most cases a specific and absolute remedy.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly unfolds one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver. These facts make the occasional use of the Sarsaparilla as a preventive, advisable.

It is a mistake to suppose that so long as no eruptions or humors appear, there must be no scrofulous taint. These forms of derangement may never occur, and yet the vital forces of the body so reduced by its subtle agency, as materially to impair the health and shorten the duration of life. It is a common error, also, that scrofula is strictly hereditary. It does, indeed, descend from parent to child, but is also engendered in persons born in pure blood. Low living, indigestion, foul air, licentious habits, uncleanliness, and the depressing vices generally, produce it. Weakly constitutions, where not fortified by the most constant and judicious care, are peculiarly liable to it. Yet the reason, also, why purified blood swells the veins with an apparently exuberant vitality, are often contaminated, and on the road to its consequences. Indeed, no class or condition can depend on immunity from it, nor feel insensible to the importance of an effectual remedy.

In St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, for Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Ears and Eyes, and other eruptive or visible forms of the diseases caused primarily by the scrofulous infection, the Sarsaparilla is so efficient as to be indispensable. And in more concealed forms, as in Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and other affections of the muscular and nervous systems, the Sarsaparilla, through its purifying power, removes the cause of the disorder and produces astonishing cures.

The sarsaparilla root of the tropics does not by itself achieve these results. It is aided by the extracts combined with it, of still greater power, to polish to the uttermost degree its virtues. Impurities of Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases in general, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by the invigorating and purifying effect of our Sarsaparilla. Rheumatism and Gout, often dependent on the accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, have their remedy also in this medicine. For Liver Complaints, Debility, Inflammation, Abscess, etc., caused by reckless poisons in the blood, we unhesitatingly recommend the Sarsaparilla.

This medicine restores health and vigor where no specific disease can be distinguished. Its restorative power is soon felt by those who are Languid, Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and filled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or who are troubled with any other of those affections symptomatic of weakness. Many, after taking it for General Debility, have written us of the youthful vigor imparted to their nervous system, which seemed incurred with that prelude life they thought had departed on the entrance of age. Others, whose fountains of life were always sterile, acknowledge their obligations to it for an obvious change.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical, or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in no wise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the sporadic districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

MISCELLANEOUS.

SYNOPSIS OF STATEMENT FOR 1868, OF THE CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

Income from Premiums,	$7 161,304 11
Income from Interest,	1,594,906 48
Total Income for the year,	8,749,309 59
Losses paid,	1 221,735 00
Dividends paid,	928,264 00
Total Losses paid to date,	8,092,663 00
Total Dividends paid to date,	2,197,2.8 00

It will be seen from the above that the INCOME FROM INTEREST ALONE greatly exceeds the losses, and that the TOTAL INCOME FOR ONE YEAR is more than the TOTAL LOSSES PAID TO DATE.

The Assets of the Company are NOW OVER THIRTY-THREE MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, and with its IMMENSE INCOME, offers greater inducements to those insuring than any other Company in the country. In addition to the part-credit system of premiums with dividends annually payable after four years, it issues Policies upon a reduced all-cash premium, with immediate ANNUAL DIVIDENDS. It can be plainly seen that the Connecticut Mutual Life has been doing a safe and increasing business for the last twenty-two years. It does not deem it necessary to make grand promises of what they INTEND doing, but will insure persons on any plan most desirable, and it makes all its policies non-forfeitable, for a stated amount, after two or three payments. Also remember, this Company has $154 Assets securely invested, for every $100 of its Liabilities.

A GOOD BEGINNING.—A gentleman recently from Chapel Hill, informed us today, that the University has opened with three students.

P. S.—One of these has left. Very, very sad, indeed!

In the case of K. H. Worthey against the Commissioners of the county of Moore, a writ of error to the Supreme Court of the U. S. has been "allowed" by Pearson, Chief Justice, under date of the 27th February 1869, at the petition of the plaintiff.

MR. LOVE'S REMARKS.

When the vote on the XVth Amendment was about to be taken, Mr. Love, Senator from Jackson, made the following remarks:

Mr Love, in casting his vote, remarked that his position in politics was too well-known in the Senate to be referred to. That he was a partizan, and the open opponent of the Republican party. That in the two heated campaigns of 1868, and previous thereto, he had resisted the Reconstruction Acts, had blamed, and found fault, with the Congress that enacted them, because their action was circumscribed, because they subjected the ten Southern States to a condition the North seemed to scorn. He had spurned this humiliating discrimination. If the negro was to be free, and this was now decided, he should be free indeed. His liberties should be co-extensive with the jurisdiction of Congress, and his rights the same, in all parts of the great American Republic. He was opposed to cooping him up in the ten Southern States, and therefore voted AYE.

STATE NEWS.

Some negroes have been stealing the flues belonging to the Wilmington and Manchester Railroad.

A NEW COUNTY PROPOSED.—A memorial is being circulated and numerously signed by citizens of the territory interested, praying the General Assembly to establish a new territory, to be called "Rocky Mount" It is proposed to extend it from the Wilson line on the south to the Halifax line on the north, and to embrace the territory comprised within six miles of the west side of the W. & W. R. R.—Wil. Star.

HORRIBLE OUTRAGE.—We learn from the Fayetteville Eagle, of a most horrid outrage in Moore county on the 19th ult. A negro by the name of Edward Blue, living on the land of one Graham with his family, was attacked by disguised persons. He was wounded but escaped. Two or three of his children escaped, but his wife and one child was killed. The cabin was fired; and the skeletons of the murdered wife and child were found among the ruins. Blue bore a bad character and was very unpopular. A meeting of citizens has been held to take steps looking to the bringing to punishment the guilty parties. Graham and one Riddle have been arrested and lodged in jail. A low demagogue, W. B. Richardson, is trying to give a political turn to the affair, but all the neighbors of Blue are Radicals and have sworn that no negroes shall live among them. Graham is a leading Radical. This matter should be ferreted out, and the guilty brought to punishment.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—We learn that Mr. S. Allen Stuart, in this county, made two attempts last week to hang himself, but fortunately his son discovered him in time to prevent death Pecuniary embarrassment is said to be the cause.—Western Democrat.

WOODLAWN FACTORY.—We are pleased to learn that the Woodlawn Cotton Manufacturing Company, by L. Linebarger & Co., is rapidly increasing in popularity; so much so that their extensive machinery is taxed to its utmost capacity to fill orders. This Company produces as fine Shirting, Sheeting and Yarns as can be manufactured in the South, and their prices are extremely moderate.—Daily Bulletin.

ADDRESS OF ANDREW JOHNSON, TO THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES.

To the People of the United States:

The robe of office, by Constitutional limitation, this day falls from my shoulders, to be immediately assumed by my successor. For him the forbearance and co-operation of the American people, in all his efforts to administer the Government within the pale of the Federal Constitution, are sincerely invoked. Without ambition to gratify, party ends to subserve, or personal quarrels to avenge at the sacrifice of the peace and welfare of the country, my earnest desire is to see the Constitution, as defined and limited by the fathers of the Republic, again recognized and obeyed as the supreme law of the land, and the whole people—North, South, East, and West—prosperous and happy under its wise provisions.

In surrendering the high office to which I was called four years ago, at a memorable and terrible crisis, it is my privilege, I trust, to say to the people of the United States a few parting words, in vindication of an official course so ceaselessly assailed and aspersed by political leaders, to whose plans and wishes my policy to restore the Union has been obnoxious. In a period of difficulty and turmoil almost without precedent in the history of any people, consequent upon the closing scenes of a great rebellion and the assassination of the then President, it was, perhaps, too much, on my part, to expect of devoted partisans, who rode on the waves of excitement which at that time swept all before them, that degree of toleration and magnanimity which I sought to recommend and enforce, and which I believe in good time would have advanced us infinitely further on the road to permanent peace and prosperity than we have thus far attained. Doubtless had I at the commencement of my term of office unhesitatingly lent its powers or perverted them to purposes and plans "outside of the Constitution," and become an instrument to schemes of confiscation and of general and oppressive disqualifications, I would have been hailed as all that was true, loyal, and discerning; as the reliable head of a party, whatever I might have been as the Executive of the nation. Unwilling, however, to accede to propositions of extremists, and bound to adhere, at every personal hazard, to my oath to defend the Constitution, I need not, perhaps, be surprised at having met the fate of others whose only rewards for upholding constitutional right and law have been the consciousness of having attempted to do their duty, and the calm and unprejudiced judgment of history.

At the time a mysterious Providence assigned to me the office of President, I was, by the terms of the Constitution, the Commander-in-chief of nearly a million of men under arms. One of my first acts was to disband and restore to the vocations of civil life this immense host, and to divest myself, so far as I could, of the unparalleled powers then incident to the office and the times. Whether or not, in this step, I was right, and how far deserving the approbation of the people, all can now on reflection judge, when reminded of the ruinous condition of public affairs that must have resulted from the continuance in the military service of such a vast number of men.

The close of our domestic conflict found the army eager to distinguish itself in a new field, by an effort to punish European intervention in Mexico. By many it was believed and urged that, aside from the assumed justice of the proceeding, a foreign war, in which both sides would cheerfully unite to vindicate the honor of the national flag, and further illustrate the national prowess, would be the surest and speediest way of awakening national enthusiasm, reviving devotion to the Union, and occupying a force concerning which grave doubts existed as to its willingness, after four years of active campaigning, at once to return to the pursuits of peace. Whether these speculations were true or false, it will be conceded that they existed, and that the predilections of the army were, for the time being, in the direction indicated. Taking advantage of this feeling it would have been easy, as the Commander-in-chief of the army and navy, and with all the power and patronage of the Presidential office at my disposal, to turn the concentrated military strength of the nation against French interference in Mexico, and to inaugurate a movement which would have been received with favor by the military and a large portion of the people.

It is proper, in this connection, that I should refer to the almost unlimited additional power tendered to the Executive by the measures relating to civil rights and the Freedmen's Bureau. Contrary to most precedents in the experiences of public men, the powers thus placed within my grasp were declined, as in violation of the Constitution, dangerous to the liberties of the people, and tending to aggravate, rather than lessen, the discords naturally resulting from our civil war. With a large army and augmented authority, it would have been no difficult task to direct at pleasure the destinies of the Republic, and to make secure my continuance in the highest office known to our laws.

Let the people whom I am addressing from the Presidential chair during the closing hours of a laborious term consider how different would have been their present condition had I yielded to the dazzling temptation of foreign conquest, of personal aggrandizement, and the desire to wield additional power. Let them with justice consider that, if I have not unduly "magnified mine office," the public burdens have not been increased by my acts, and other and perhaps thousands or tens of thousands of lives sacrificed to visions of false glory.

It cannot, therefore, be charged that my ambition has been of that ordinary or criminal kind which, to the detriment of the people's rights and liberties, ever seeks to grasp more and unwarranted powers, and, to accomplish its purposes, panders too often to popular prejudices and party aims.

What, then, have been the aspirations which guided me in my official acts?—These acts need not, at this time, an elaborate explanation. They have been elsewhere comprehensively stated and fully discussed, and become a part of the nation's history. By them I am willing to be judged, knowing that, however imperfect, they at least show to the impartial mind that my sole ambition has been to restore the Union of the States, faithfully to execute the office of President, and, to the best of my ability, to preserve, protect and defend the Constitution. I cannot be censured if my efforts have been impeded in the interests of party, faction; and, if a policy which was intended to reassure and conciliate the people of both sections of the country was made the occasion of inflaming and dividing still farther those who, only recently in arms against each other, yet, as individuals and citizens, were sincerely desirous, as I shall ever believe, of burying all hostile feelings in the grave of the past. The bitter war was waged, on the part of the Government, to vindicate the Constitution and save the Union; and, if I have erred in trying to bring about a more speedy and lasting peace, to extinguish burnings and enmities, and to prevent troubles in the South, which, retarding material prosperity in that region, injuriously affected the whole country, I am quite content to rest my case with the more deliberate judgment of the people, and, as I have already intimated, with the distant future.

The war, all must remember, was a stupendous and deplorable mistake. Neither side understood the other; and had this simple fact and its conclusions been kept in view, all that was accomplished by the acknowledgment of the terrible wrong, and the expressed better feeling and earnest endeavor at atonement shown and felt in the prompt ratification of constitutional amendments by the Southern States at the close of the war. Not accepting the war as a confessed false step on the part of those who inaugurated it, was an error which now only time can cure, and which even at this late date we should endeavor to palliate.—Experiencing, moreover, as all have done, the frightful cost of the arbitrament of the sword, let us, in the future, cling closer than ever to the Constitution as our only safeguard. It is to be hoped that not until the burdens now pressing upon us with such fearful weight are removed will our people forget the lessons of the war; and that, remembering them from whatever cause, peace between sections and States may be perpetual.

The history of late events in our country, as well as of the greatest Governments of ancient and modern times, teaches that we have everything to fear from a departure from the letter and spirit of the Constitution, and the due ascendency of men allowed to assume power in what are considered desperate emergencies. Sylla, on becoming master of Rome, at once adopted measures to crush his enemies, and to consolidate the power of his party. He established military colonies throughout Italy; deprived of the full Roman franchise the inhabitants of the Italian towns who had opposed his usurpations; confiscated their lands, and gave them to his soldiers; and conferred citizenship upon a great number of slaves belonging to those who had proscribed him, thus creating at Rome a kind of body guard for his protection. After having given Rome over to slaughter, and tyrannized beyond all example over those opposed to him and the legions, his terrible instruments of wrong, Sylla could yet feel safe in laying down the ensigns of power so dreadfully abused, and in mingling freely with the families and friends of his myriad victims. The fear which he had inspired continued after his voluntary abdication, and even in retirement his will was law to a people who had permitted themselves to be enslaved. What but a subtle knowledge and conviction that the Roman people had become changed, discouraged, and utterly broken in spirit could have induced this daring assumption? What but public indifference to consequences so terrible as to leave Rome open to every calamity which subsequently befell her, could have justified the conclusions of the dictator and tyrant in his startling experiment?

We find that in the time which has since elapsed human nature and exigencies in government have not greatly changed.—Who, a few years past, in contemplating our future, could have supposed that in a brief period of bitter experience everything demanded in the name of military emergency, or dictated by caprice, would come to be considered as mere matters of course; that conscription, confiscation, loss of personal liberty, the subjection of States to military rule, and disfranchisement, with the extension of the right of suffrage merely to accomplish party ends, would receive the passive submission, if not acquiescence, of the people of the Republic?

It has been clearly demonstrated, by recent occurrences, that encroachments upon the Constitution cannot be prevented by the President alone, however devoted or determined he may be, and that, unless the people interpose there is no power under the Constitution to check a dominant majority of two thirds in the Congress of the United States. An appeal to the nation, however, is attended with too much delay to meet an emergency. While, if left free to act, the people would correct, in time, such evils as might follow legislative usurpation, there is danger that the same power which disregards the Constitution will deprive them of the right to change their rulers, except by revolution. We have already seen the jurisdiction of the judiciary circumscribed when it was apprehended that the courts would decide against laws having for their sole object the supremacy of party, while the veto power, lodged in the Executive by the Constitution for the interest and protection of the people, and exercised by Washington and his successors, have been rendered nugatory by a partizan majority of two-thirds in each branch of the National Legislature. The Constitution evidently contemplates that when a bill is returned, with the President's objections, it will be calmly reconsidered by Congress. Such, however, has not been the practice under present party rule. It has become evident that men who pass a bill under partizan influences are not likely, through patriotic motives, to admit their error, and thereby weaken their own organizations by solemnly confessing it, under an official oath. Pride of opinion, if nothing else, has intervened and prevented a calm and dispassionate reconsideration of a bill disapproved by the Executive.

Much as I venerate the Constitution, it must be admitted that this condition of affairs has developed a defect which, under the aggressive tendency of the legislative department of the Government, may readily work its overthrow. It may, however, be remedied without disturbing the harmony of the instrument.

The veto power is generally exercised upon constitutional grounds, and whenever it is so applied, and the bill returned with the Executive reasons for withholding his signature, it ought to be immediately certified to the Supreme Court of the United States for its decision. If its constitutionality shall be declared by that tribunal, it should then become a law; but if the decision is otherwise, it should fail, without power in Congress to re-enact and make it valid.

In cases in which the veto rests upon hasty and inconsiderate legislation, and in which no constitutional question is involved, I would not change the fundamental law; for in such cases no permanent evil can be incorporated into the Federal system.

It is obvious that without such an amendment, the Government, as it existed under the Constitution prior to the rebellion, may be wholly subverted and overthrown by a two-thirds majority in Congress. It is not, therefore, difficult to see how easily and how rapidly the people may lose—shall I not say, have lost?—their liberties by an unchecked and uncontrollable majority in the law making power; and when, once deprived of their rights, how powerless they are to regain them.

[CONCLUDED TO-MORROW.]

A more astonishing musical prodigy than Mozart is little Susie Medbery, of Baltic, Mass. Before she could speak words, when but ten months old, she would sing entire tunes correctly. At two and a half years old, she sang publicly before large audiences, and now, at four years of age, played upon the piano or cabinet organ with marvellous talent.

LIFE INSURANCE.

NATIONAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Chartered by Special Act of Congress, Approved July 25th, 1868.

CASH CAPITAL,

$1,000,000,

PAID IN FULL.

This Company, National in its character, offers, by reason of its large capital, low rates of Premium, and New Tables, the most desirable means of insuring life yet presented to the public.

The rates of premium being largely reduced, are made as favorable to the insurers as those of the best Mutual Companies, and avoid all the complications and uncertainties of Notes, Dividends and the misunderstandings which the latter are so apt to cause the Policy-holder.

Several new and attractive tables are now presented, which need only to be understood to prove acceptable to the public, such as the IV. COME-PRODUCING POLICY and RETURN PREMIUM POLICY. In the former, the policy-holder not only secures a life insurance, payable at death, but will receive, if living, after a period of a few years, an ANNUAL INCOME equal to ten per cent. (10 per cent) of the par of his policy. In the latter the Company agrees to return to the assured the total amount of money he has paid in, in addition to the amount of his policy.

The organization of this Company on the LOW RATE, CASH PLAN, with new features and unequaled security, has evoked the most remarkable opposition from older and rival Companies. By means, fair and unfair, they have sought to injure the new system, and have attacked it with a degree of virulence unknown in the history of Life Insurance.

Not satisfied with the immense sums of money paid Insurance and other journals, to try and check the rapid progress of the National, an unsuccessful motion was made in Congress to repeal its charter, all of which but accelerated its speed for since then, the largest policies issued has been to members of Congress, whose attention has been thus attracted to its unsurpassed advantages. In the face of this opposition, the work of the Company has gone steadily forward, and it is with no little satisfaction that the GENERAL AGENTS are able to state that the business to date is far in advance of anything hitherto accomplished

In Six Months 3,000 Policies have Been Issued.

INSURING, IN ROUND NUMBERS,

$10,000,000.

The attention of persons contemplating insuring their lives, or increasing the amount of insurance they already have, is called to the special advantages offered by the National Life Insurance Co.

Office of the Company, at present, at the store of W. H. Jones & Co., Raleigh, N. C., where the officers may be found.

This Company is now ready to receive applications for insurance, on the mutual plan, and to issue policies. This scheme is fully explained in a circular addressed to the people of North Carolina, to which special attention is called. It can be had by addressing the Secretary, or from our Agents. It is believed that our mutual plan offers inducements to the people at large, not equaled by other Companies.

The Company has issued a Prospectus to raise a Capital Stock to enable it to take Life risks on the Stock plan. When this is done, the Company will offer a very superior scheme of Life Insurance on this plan.

We want Agents in every city, town and village in the State. The Company will be managed with the strictest economy and efficiency, for the benefit of the insured and all interested.

We must build up our home institutions and, as far as possible, keep our money at home to promote home enterprise, home industry and prosperity. WM. R. PELL,

CAPITAL OF THE STATE,

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.
It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.
It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.
It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph, will be carefully collated and presented.
Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.
And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES
WITHOUT LABOR.
THE AUTOMATIC
CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used in any place of fuel, in any house, and in Low rates of the action places in which the steam of every family.
The Boiler operates upon purely philosophic principles, is self-acting, dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.
The hot water and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, pour on the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, thereby all grease, from two tubes acts to the boiler. For flannels it is invaluable, as it does not fall them as in the process of rubbing and pounding.
The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric, thoroughly loosening and eradicating the dirt WITHOUT LABOR or friction.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.
Nothing can wash so badly, be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of this Boiler will soon be recruited in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.
The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany the introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.
No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHERS, and see its wonderful operations.—we have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the State.

DRY GOODS.
NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!
AT HOME AGAIN!!
WITH A HOUSE RAMMED AND PACKED FULL OF
NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

COME TO A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!
Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? so let them talk, puff and blow, but STOP, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!
A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.
